Dear Bob:

Enclosed is a By-Law proposal and a letter addressed to you and the other Board of Trustees members of Samaritan regarding your proposal for a By-Law change.

The Northeast District is extremely doubtful as to the benefit of this change for us. We are experiencing a severe shortage of MCC ministers here, and the exhortership program has been the only way we have been able to enlist any ministers, other than the 3 who have come in from other denominations. Seminararians and those in their "final year of education" are a thing of the past for us. While Jeff, Larry, Nancy, etc. all came in that fashion, since then almost no one of that calibre has turned up. Most of the newer ministers have come from other professions and added to their educations in theology since become exhorters. We had one, for example, who had a Ph.D. in Astronomy! These people are valuable to us, and dealing with them in the fashion proposed by the By-Law change might well lose them for us.

We would hope you would look at this from the perspective of at least three districts who are experiencing ministerial shortages. We do not have too much luck in getting transfers in from other areas of the Fellowship, either. After all, how many people want to trade a life in the sun-belt for a New England winter? We must recruit where we are. (Shades of Anita!)

By the way, have talked with Connie again. She is about ready to quit not only prison ministry, but also the exhortership. I think she's just gotten overwhelmed getting ready for graduation. Also her lover and she seem to be having problems, maybe also related to over-extendedness. Will keep you informed. We have a young exhorter, Carlton Cornish (as well as Phil Eberle) ready to pick up if need be.

See you in May!

BOARD OF PRISON MINISTRY (USA)

Report to the General Conference, July 1975

INTRODUCTION

The objective of the ministry of the Board of Prison Ministry (USA) is that all might come to know the Lord Jesus Christ and take part in his work. The works of service for men and women in institutions is directed toward this end. Released prisoners are referred to membership in local churches they may be means to this same end.

The Board of Elders established this Board during its meetings at the 1974 General Conference. During the current year the Board consisted of:

Richard R. Mickley, National Administrator
The Rev. Bud Bunce, National Chief of Chaplains
The Rev. Richard Vincent, National Advisor

In September, 1974 the National Administrator moved the office of the Board to Los Angeles (from Phoenix) in order to be able to work more closely with the other members of the Board and with the Board of Elders.

During the year the Board recommended to the Board of Elders that the name of the Board be changed to the Board of Institutional Ministry. At this writing, that action had not been taken, pending a complete study by the Board of Elders.

THE ORGANIZATION

The Board of Prison Ministry has attempted to hold together a loosely organized national ministry through its Los Angeles office and periodic Board meetings.

The Board maintains direct contact with Chaplains and Area Representatives around the country. These appointments are made on the recommendation of the pastor and at the request of the person who desires to take on this ministry. To this point, then, such appointments to service have been made at the initiative of persons involved.

The Board of Prison Ministry has full jurisdiction (control, authority: by whatever word it is called) over all ministry in the name of MCC to prisoners in state and federal institutions. No pastor, no individual should by-pass this jurisdiction of the Board.

On the other hand, all ministry to prisoners in city and county jails is under the full jurisdiction of the local MCC pastor, and not under the Board of Prison Ministry.

THE HANDBOOK OF PRISON MINISTRY

At the 1974 General Conference, the UFMCC Handbook of Prison Ministry, written by Dick Mickley under the direction of Rev. Joseph Gilbert, was offered to the Fellowship. During the year the 300 copies of the first printing were sold out. A second edition is planned by fall of 1975.

THE WAHL-GILBERT LAWSUIT: LIPP ET AL. VS. PROCUNIER

On May 20, 1975 a three judge Federal Court gave a decision in a court case initiated on February 14, 1973 by Attorney John Wahl and the Rev. Joseph Gilbert in behalf of plaintiffs in prison and in MCC. The judges ruled unanimously to lift the ban placed on MCC worship services in California prisons by Raymond Procunier, then State Director of Corrections.

The judges also offered the opinion that MCC is a "bona fide" church and that denial of MCC worship services to prisoners who request them is a serious infringement of their constitutional rights.

An evidentiary hearing will be held August 11, 1975 in which the State of California must show that there are serious reasons why the ban should be continued. Attorney Wahl has made an urgent appeal for witnesses who can testify that MCC worship services would not cause harm to the good order of the prison.

The Board praised Attorney Wahl and Rev. Gilbert for this landmark victory.

OTHER LAWSUITS

During the course of the year, several other similar lawsuits have been started in which the Fellowship or ministers of the Fellowship have been interested. Among these are: southern Illinois, Terminal Island at Long Beach, and in the Chicago area. All of these are in the earliest stages.

THE WORK

During this year, the Board continued the programs begun by The Rev. Joseph Gilbert, Director from 1972-1974 and based its program of services on the recommendations of the past Director's 1974 report of the General Conference.

The ministry includes pen pals (from the national office and from the various churches around the country), A newsletter published bi-monthly for prisoners, visitation and counseling in prisons, worship services where possible, Correspondences courses available free of charge to prisoners, assistance with parole planning and post parole assistance including referral to a local MCC congregation for friends and fellowship.

THE STAFF

In addition to the members of the Board, and the Chaplains and Area Representatives around the country, several faithful volunteers in the Los Angeles office deserve mention.

Terry Foster (and his other half Terry) have written hundreds of letters and arranged for numerous pen pals in the position of National Coordinator of Correspondence to prisoners.

Jack Howard has performed a herculean task of organizing and keeping up to date the constantly growing mailing list which mushroomed month by month.

Larry La Bounty has lent his office skills, day after day, zeroxing, typing, filing.

Phil Williams has assisted in processing Correspondence Courses.

Richard Payne, Dorothy Rose, John Morse, David and many others have helped a lot with typing, assembling publications, etc.

Gordon Fisher has handled requests for parole planning and post parole assistance in the L.A. area.

Arnie Remsic has been our associate for fund raising having organized several fund raising affairs for the Board and for the ministry to ex prisoners.

THE MAILING LIST

Throughout the year the prison ministry mailing list has steadily grown from less than 200 prisoners to nearly 1000 prisoners and people on the streets (some of them released prisoners).

Keeping the mailing list up to date is a gigantic project in itself. The cooperation of chaplains, Area Representatives, and pastors has been a significant factor in the growth of the mailing list. Prisoners from 80 some institutions around the country are now receiving the regular mailings.

CHAPLAINS

Chaplains and Acting Chaplains have full authority, under the Board of Prison Ministry, to represent the Fellowship in the institution of their appointment. They have full "pastoral ministry" responsibility in that institution and should strive to build up a worshipping, witnessing, serving community of Christians, starting with meaningful one to one relationships. Chaplains are required by the Board to keep the Board informed of all communications with prison officials. They are advised that the way to start a group of Christians is to start with one and pray with that person that the Lord will send one more, and then pray with those two that the Lord will add "daily to the number of those who are being saved."

And sometime later it may be time to contact officials about the request of these prisoners for the minister's services.

With approval of pastors and district coordinators, the following chaplaincies are in effect:

The Rev. Tere Roderick, Vacaville, California
The Rev. James Harris, Segoville, Texas
Deacon John Logan, Atascadero, California
Exhorter James Lewey, Menard, Illinois

John Logan has conducted bi-weekly worship services at Atascadero and has held quarterly dance parties for the inmates. He has utilized a number of guest preachers and has a well organized community of worshipping Christians. He and Rev. Bunce attended a program in May at the institution participated in by courts, law enforcement officials, and all agencies participating in the Atascadero program.

each week

Rev. Roderick serves one day as counselor in the Protestant Chaplain's office. More than 100 inmates have been involved in this form of MCC ministry. Rev. Roderick has a good rapport with both inmates and officials.

AREA REPRESENTATIVES OF THE BOARD OF PRISON MINISTRY

The title Area Representative of the Board of Prison Ministry was approved during the year to replace the title Local Coordinator of National Prison Ministry. (That title was an accurate one, but it was confusing to some because of its use of "local" and "national" in the same title; it also used the term "coordinator" which is more properly left to District Coordinator.)

Some of the duties of the Area Representative are:

- organize pen pals in the local congregation.
- organize local MCC people to visit prisoners in state and federal prisons.
- serve as contact person for parole and post parole services in that church area, being familiar with all applicable social service resources.
- serve as representative of the Board for any matter that requires local attention.

Most Area Representatives were faithful in sending monthly reports indicating a very significant amount of work in the areas listed above. The following is the current list of Area Representatives nominated by pastors and approved by the Board of Prison Ministry.

Bob Arthur, Omaha
Courtney Craighead, New Orleans
Carl Doerschuk, Akron
Michael England, Salt Lake City
Connie Fields, Hawaii
Gordon Fisher, Los Angeles
Howard Gaas, Baltimore
Joseph Gilbert, Providence
Ivan Gregory, Sacramento
Sheldon Haight, Seattle
Steve LaFever, Nashville

James Lewey, St. Louis
Kenneth Martin, Chicago
Rocky McLane, Jacksonville
Frank Murr, Denver
Terry Napier, Cincinnati
Bert Perkins, San Fernando Valley
Dan Richmond, Philadelphia
Eric Randolph, Kansas City
Tere Roderick, San Francisco

Steve Chubb, Texas

THE CELLMATE

The Board's bi-monthly publication for evangelism and communication was given the name THE CELLMATE. It was published in November, December, February, April, June with a printing of 1200 copies in the last two months. It seemed to be well received by prisoners and many others who saw it.

PEN PALS

Letter writing continued in almost unbelievable volume. Dick in the office kept up a pace of dozens of letters to prisoners each week most of the year, but as the other demands of the work became greater and greater, he turned more and more of the letter writing over to Terry Foster, National Chairperson for Pen Pals, and to the Area Representatives. Reports from Area Representatives indicate a great volume of letter writing on their part. Terry Foster and his lover, Terry, have not only written a lot of letters, but have linked many pen pals with correspondents.

CORRESPONDENCE COURSES

We began the year with only an idea: Correspondence courses would be good for persons who want Christian-oriented courses to help direct their thoughts and fill their meditations with uplifting reflections. Three courses were promised:

What is MCC Today?
Why Am I Afraid to Love?
Christian Sexuality

The first two courses were written by Dick Mickley and offered for enrollment by Christmas. Several dozen persons are currently enrolled in these courses. The text for Christian Sexuality is now published in a book written by Dick Mickley and the correspondence lessons will be available by fall (as well as a study guide for groups to use). Some prison officials refused to allow the courses to be taken. We didn't have time to fight this in every case. Towards the end of the year, a slow down occurred in processing the lessons. Help is urgently needed in this ministry. It's a good thing that needs to be done right and efficiently.

PAROLE ASSISTANCE

Several chaplains and Area Representatives reported significant activity in the area of helping with parole planning and in helping parolees adjust, get settled, and make Christian friends in the Christian community on the streets. We are mindful of this activity in Denver, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Omaha and Los Angeles and certainly in many other cities. In L.A. the Board set up a club of people who were interested in this particular form of social outreach. It later organized independently with the name Inside-outside club. It has gone through some real birth pains. The idea of a family of friends interested in helping themselves grow as Christian persons and extending a helping hand to ex prisoners as their mission is a good one. The L.A. group had some successful fund raising events to aid in their outreach.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE CONCERNS

In October 1974, Dick asked Papa John Hose to try to get somebody from Tampa to "look into" the National Convention of the Volunteers in Probation held in Tampa. Deacon Paul Schaeffer attended the entire Convention and did such a good job of representing MCC that MCC became quite well known to the delegates and the UFMCC was invited to have a booth at the 1975 National Convention (Forum) in October in San Diego.

During the year the Board of Elders approved the affiliation of the Board of Prison Ministry (USA) with the Interreligious Coalition on Criminal Justice of the Joint Action and Strategy Committee. (This coalition is made up of representatives of a large number of the major churches in America.) The Rev. John Gill planned to attend the July Meeting in Atlanta, but the meeting was postponed to another month in another city. As soon as information is available, an interested nearby MCC pastor will be asked to represent the Board of Prison Ministry.

Steps have been taken to affiliate with the National Prisoners Aid Association.

The National Task Force on Higher Education and Criminal Justice will hold its "First National Conference on Alternatives to Incarceration" in Boston September 19-24. The Rev. Joseph Gilbert will represent the Board (fee and travel paid) at this Conference.

The Washington D.C. Gay Activists Alliance BiCentennial Conference in Washington October 10-14, 1975 has asked the Board to present a workshop on Gays and federal Prisons.

The Board has been in communication with many prisoner interest groups throughout the year.

PRISONER YELLOW PAGES

During the year, the Board was offered the sponsorship of the "National Prisoners Yellow Pages," a directory of all known prisoner help groups, organizations, agencies in this country. The Board accepted and is now looking for a competent person to take over this challenging and worthwhile project in behalf of the Fellowship and the prisoners we serve.

REV. BUNCE TRAVELS

During the year, Rev. Bunce made a trip to the northwest and spoke with representatives of this ministry along the way. In Seattle, he preached at MCC Seattle and received an offering for this ministry.

FUND RAISING

Through the initiative and hard work of Rev. Bunce, a successful Boat Cruise was held in L.A. in April which raised over a thousand dollars to support this ministry. Arnie Remsic helped with several other projects.

REPORT OF INCOME

The following is a report of income which went through the Board office. The accurate Income-Expense record will be found in the UFMCC Treasurer's report. The following figures include $300 from Keith Suhling of Illinois, $80 from Arnie Remsic of L.A., $50 from Josie and Sue Branklein of Phoenix, $50 from Jeri Chapman of L.A. (It also includes accounts receivable for Handbooks sent to MCC bookstores on consignment.)

THE HANDBOOK OF PRISON MINISTRY	$302.07
DONATIONS TO THE CELLMATE	384.00
DONATIONS FOR CORRESPONDENCE COURSES	180.00

THE FUTURE

The programs followed this year, recommended by Rev. Gilbert in his 1974 report, are sound programs and should be continued.

The most serious problem is personnel. Much brainstorming needs to be put into finding a workable way to distribute the work load and get the work done efficiently and effectively for the good of the souls concerned and for the glory of Jesus Christ in whose service we labor.

500 MCC Crosses were received through the courtesy of the Sommers' of MCC-Providence, with a value of more than $500.00, to be used for prisoners.

ALPHA AND OMEGA MCC HOSTS PRISON CONFERENCE

NEW YORK, April 9 - Alpha and Omega Metropolitan Community Church of Brooklyn announced plans today for a "Gays in Prison" Conference to be held April 29-30.

"The aims of this conference are to educate ourselves concerning the difficulties of the gay person in prison, the opportunities which are open to us to make contact, and the services which may be utilized to deal with the needs of inmates in prison and upon release," explained Bill Smith, who is a minister in training in the church and who heads the conference. "Most people simply do not realize the degree of persecution, danger and alienation that gays in prison face," he said, "and this conference is to help us as the gay community to find new and better ways of helping these individuals."

The Saturday afternoon program will feature a number of panels, workshops and special guests. Four ex-inmates will report on "Homosexuality in Prisons." A workshop on "The Role of the Volunteer in the Corrections Department" will be led by Sandra Lewis Smith, Civilian Training Officer of the New York City Department of Corrections.

Rev. Dee Jackson, pastor of Alpha and Omega, who has worked extensively in the prisons, and Gloria Audet, who works among inmates in the greater Boston area, will present a discussion on "Dealing with Women Inmates." Elinor Kass, a social worker and supervisor with the New York City Department of Social Services, will speak on "Eligibility for Social Services and Rehabilitation."

Other workshops will deal with "Religion in the Life of an Inmate" and "Half-Way Houses."

Registration for the Saturday conference will be from 12:30-1:00 p.m. and a contribution of $3.00 per person is requested. The Saturday program will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, 124 Henry Street, which may be reached by taking the 2 or 3 Broadway subway train to the Clark Street exit, then walking south one-half block on Henry.

On Sunday, April 30, Alpha and Omega MCC will celebrate a special Prison Emphasis Sunday. The service will begin at 2 p.m. at the First Unitarian Church, corner of Monroe and Pierrepont, one block east of the First Presbyterian Church. Members from the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic areas will be taking part in the service, and special music will be given by Elinor Howell.

"Working with offenders is one of the very special commitments of Alpha and Omega," said Rev. Dee Jackson, pastor, "and we invite everyone to join with us in learning more about this area of service within the gay community."

More information may be obtained by calling the church office Tuesday through Thursday evenings at 834-9186.

Att: Bob Rogers

Dear Mr. Rodgers:

We are a small church group who do a ministry with prisoners at the ACI, Walpole, and Bridgewater prisons. We work with approximately 35 prisoners in these facilities -- prisoners who have been abandoned by their families and friends in particular. Our church has only about 40 members, most of them in the South Providence area who are barely making it financially themselves.

We are filling Christmas stockings for the prisoners. According to prison rules we are allowed to give the following items: soap, shaving cream or soap, after shave (without alcohol), shampoo, 2 disposable razors, cigarettes, candy, cookies, pens, creme cologne, writing paper, stick deodorant, and plastic combs, toothpaste and brushes.

With about 35 stockings to fill, and with each of them costing about $4.00 to fill, this becomes a fairly expensive proposition for us. Could Adams Drugs help us with any of the items which are in the drugstore line -- possibly the small sample sizes or promotional materials distributed by the manufacturers?

We would be very grateful for the help, and the prisoners would also be grateful for the items contributed.

Please call me if you desire any further information. If our church is unfamiliar to you, please call Rev. Dr. Paul Gillespie at the Rhode Island Council of Churches to verify us as a valid Christian church.

Very sincerely yours,

Rev. Marge Ragona, Pastor

Dear Anne:

This young man, John Michael MacInnes, has recently moved into Providence and is in need of assistance. Is it possible for him to have just a little food for a couple of days from the Food Bank.

I am trying to get him into a prison release program and get him set up with food stamps until he can get work.

Any help you can give him would be appreciated.

Dear Connie,

Here it is time again for your two month's delinquent notice. Come on, Connie, let's get with it and get those two reports in. Don't make us have to go through the reassignment process again next month. HURRY, HURRY!

Love,

Rev. Bob Arthur
